Believes West Made Escape.

Jim West, one of the trio who was an alleged victim of the Shelbyville mob, it is thought, eluded the lynchers Sunday morning and made his escape. All the Shelby county officials except one believe West was not killed. County Judge Ralph Gilbert Monday requested Governor Willson to offer a reward for the arrest and conviction of each member of the mob that lynched two of the three negroes. He also asked the Governor to offer a reward for the apprehension of Jim West.

Governor Willson Wednesday offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of each and every member of the mob which lynched two negroes at Shelbyville early Sunday morning.

Frankfort Team.

At a meeting of the Directors of the Frankfort base ball team, of the Blue Grass League Tuesday night, A. L. Coleman was designated to act for the club at all meetings of the league Directors, and arrange for the schedule this season. A committee was appointed to solicit subscriptions and report to the Directors Monday night.

Aged Bourbon Citizen Passes Away.

After an illness of less than a week of pneumonia, Mr. William Tarr, for a number of years a prominent distiller, speculator and one of the oldest, best known and most highly respected citizens of Bourbon county, died at about 8 o'clock Wednesday evening at his home a few miles from this city on the Maysville pike.

Mr. Tarr, who was born on June 22, 1825, was a son of the late Robert Tarr. He began life a poor boy but through his natural business instincts made a rapid raise acquiring an immense fortune through extensive speculation. Early in life he engaged in the pursuit of agriculture with a brother and after a few years so successful had been his efforts that the partnership was dissolved, he entering in business for himself. Subsequently he engaged in distilling, trading and real estate speculation, which yielded him immense profits.

Mr. Tarr, in the course of his active business career, came into possession of a vast amount of land in the mountains of Eastern Kentucky through which a portion of the L. & E. railroad extends. About twenty-five years ago, and before this road was constructed, Mr. Tarr was one of the leading figures identified with the promoters of the road to open this territory.

Several years ago he suffered financial reverses and has since lived a life of retirement.

Mr. Tarr was twice married, his first wife, who died in March 1873, being a daughter of W. W. and Sarah Fisher. To them were born Thompson Tarr, of this city, and Fisher Tarr, of Hot Springs, Ark. His second marriage was to Miss Mary Fisher, a sister of his first wife, and who survives. They were married in January 1876, the result of their union being four children, Wm. Tarr, of Oklahoma City, Okla., Bennett Tarr, of Paris, Mrs. Hughes Atkinson, of Mt. Sterling, and Mrs. J. O. Evans, of Winchester.

The funeral services will be held at the grave in the Paris cemetery this afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Prof. C. C. Fisher, of Millersburg.

The pall-bearers will be: James McClure, J. G. Allen, Geo. R. Bell, Dr. V. W. Huffman, Letton Vincent, Denis Dundon.

DEATHS.

—Nettie Nelson Craycraft, the five-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Craycraft, of near Hutchison, died Tuesday of pneumonia. The body was taken to Mt. Sterling Wednesday for burial.

—Mr. Kenna Henry, of the United States Army, died at the home of his mother, Mrs. M. M. Henry, on the Paris pike near Winchester. Tuesday He was 21 years old, and had been connected with the coast artillery service for nearly three years. He had been promoted and was in line for further promotion when illness compelled him to come home on leave, of absence on October 28 last, since which time he has been gradually growing worse. He was a direct descendant of Patrick Henry.

BIRTHS.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Whitley are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a little daughter, who was born on Wednesday morning. The little girl was christened Elizabeth Lathan Whitley in honor of Mr. Whitley's mother. Mrs. Whitley was formerly Miss Edna Talbott.
